Screenshots of Changes to NSERC Form 202

Please refer to the updated instructions on how to complete form 202.

Notes:

- The changes are found in the Application Profile and Personal Profile for Form 202 Part 1 (the part that’s to be completed by the student).

- Generally, the terms and conditions of applying has been reset to “Not accepted”, meaning they will need to click the new link in the portfolio page to accept the new terms and conditions of applying. When they click on “Verify” for their form, they’ll get an error message if they haven’t accepted the terms and conditions of applying.

- For any technical issues with the NSERC online portal, please suggest that they contact NSERC helpdesk.
