A Guide on Submitting Exam Information

UBC CENTRE FOR ACCESSIBILITY

UPDATED SEPTEMBER 2023

Purpose:

This document is to guide you on how to navigate the online portal of the Centre for Accessibility (CfA) to provide exam information such as exam duration, format, allowances, etc. Please be reminded that for the Centre for Accessibility to provide accommodated exams to students who are registered with the CfA, exam information must be received from instructors at least two business days prior to the scheduled exam date.

For exam-related inquiries, please reach out to the Exam Coordinators via email at exam.coordinator@ubc.ca or via phone at (604) 822-0952. Thank you for your support.

Step 1: Log in with CWL

- i. Visit the website of the Centre for Accessibility at: https://students.ubc.ca/accessibility.
- ii. Scroll down to locate "Information for faculty".
- iii. Click on "Faculty login" and log in with your CWL username and password.

Requesting an accommodation

Before requesting an accommodation, you must register with the Centre for Accessibility.

If you're already registered with the Centre, submit an accommodation letter and/or exam reservation request by logging in.

If eligible, submit your peer notetaking request as well. Review important 2021/22 note taking program changes.

Student login

The Centre for Accessibility Online Services Portal is for UBC Vancouver students.

Information for faculty

If you are a faculty member, please log in to view student accommodation letters and upcoming exams requested by your students registered with the Centre. The list of Accommodation Letters does not represent the students who have booked an exam.
