Work Learn International Undergraduate Research Awards 2022 - 2023
Information Sheet for Faculty/School/Department Coordinators

Coordinators’ Roles

- Act as the main liaison between your Faculty/School/Department’s faculty supervisors, students, and the Centre for Student Involvement and Careers (CSI&C)
- Determine how the awards will be distributed and promote this program within your Faculty/School/Department
- Ensure that all faculty supervisors and students who apply meet the program eligibility criteria. We are able to verify eligibility of students if necessary.
- Forward your funded research project proposal list to the CSI&C and set up the appropriate Hire business processes (BP) via Workday by the deadline dates provided

Procedures

1. Promote the program within your Faculty/School/Department, advise students and potential supervisors of the research project proposal process, directing faculty supervisors to submit their proposal on UBC CareersOnline.
   - Faculty members can download a step-by-step guide on how to submit a research project proposal.

2. CSI&C will send research project proposals to you by Monday, February 7, 2022. Faculty/schools/department offices may allocate awards within the quota distribution using their own internal processes, with the expectations that funded research project proposals offer students meaningful research-oriented workplace experiences.
   - Determine which projects should receive the award (limited to Faculty/School award allocation numbers) by submitting an “A-list” to worklearn.iura@ubc.ca by Friday, February 25, 2022.
   - You can submit a “B-list” of research project proposals, should more funding become available or an “A-list” research project fails to recruit an eligible student.

3. As Faculty/School/Department Coordinators, you may be required to support faculty supervisors with setting up the appropriate Hire BP via Workday and addressing student inquiries relating to the start of their award.
4. Submit to the CSI&C:
